

The Visual Facilitator: Bringing Meeting Results To Life

THE VISUAL FACILITATOR is a fun, easy, hands-on introductory program on basic graphic recording. In this highly interactive one-day course led by graphic facilitator Avril Orloff, you will learn the basics of graphic recording and have the opportunity to put your knowledge into practice.

Benefits: You will walk away with an understanding of the core principles of visual thinking and acquire basic techniques for drawing simple shapes, icons and people. You will know how to translate abstract concepts into concrete images and will begin to develop your own inventory of ready-made graphic icons. Finally, you will put it all together with a graphic recording of a podcast.

Who Should Attend:

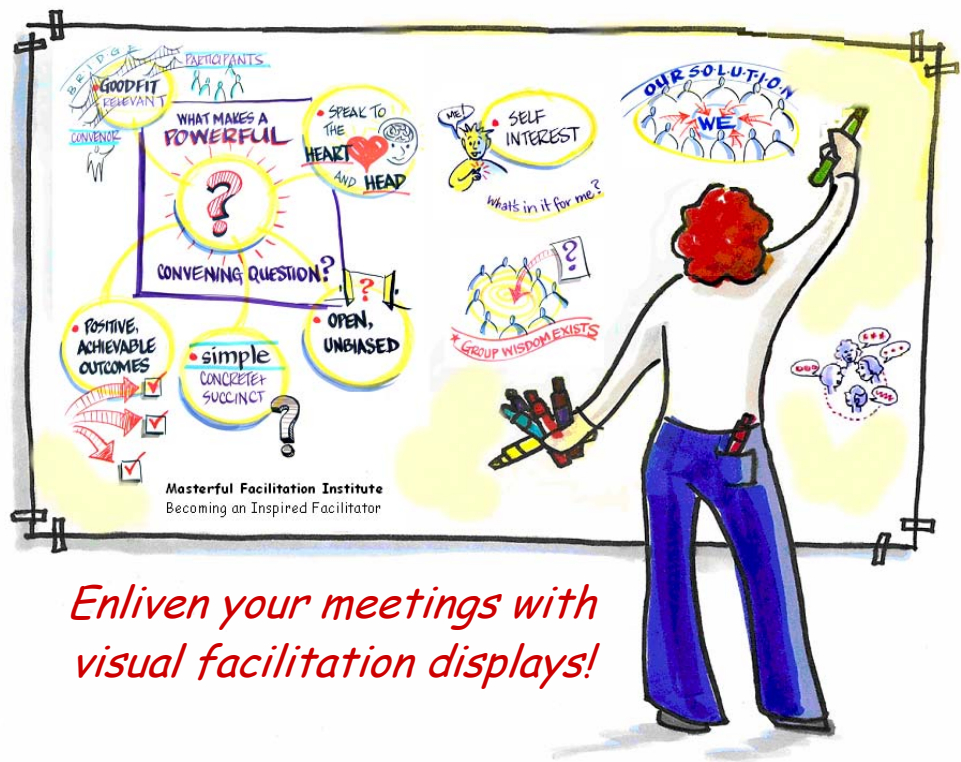

This program is for any facilitator interested in enhancing their overall skill and competency in capturing meeting results with powerful words and images, including the effective use of colour and visual metaphors. Anyone interested in learning the essentials of graphic recording is also welcome to attend.

Presenter Profile: Avril Orloff, (avrilorloff.com) is a graphic facilitator who literally draws out people's ideas by creating a visual record of meetings, conferences and workshops. Combining words with images, Avril captures the essence of a session as it unfolds, highlighting key ideas and helping the 'big picture' to emerge. She believes that seeing our thoughts 'in living colour' not only brings clarity to the process, but also inspires fresh ways of thinking by creating a space for new realizations and intuitive leaps. Her clients include community groups, government agencies, educational institutions and corporations.
